postage .10
$5.05

Dear Mrs. Bedsole:

Thank you very much for your note. We are sending WHITEWASH along to you.

Actually, we don't understand why it is not available through local bookstores because the major wholesalers carry it and all the bookstore has to do is order it from his supplier. But apparently many of them don't consider a privately printed book available thru commercial channels. We hope the word gets thru to the booksellers soon, because we are aware of the very great interest there is in the New York-New Jersey area.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg

Mr. Weisberg,

The book stores in New Brunswick told me they had tried through their suppliers to get your book, & were told it was unavailable. You did a superb job in writing your book & I for one - believed every bit of it!
